World Series Scouting Report

What's better than having an expert analyze the World Series teams? Having a pair of experts. Your hosts will be two men who managed World Series teams in recent years—Tom Lasorda of the Dodgers and Sparky Anderson of the Detroit Tigers. They'll examine both teams' strengths and weaknesses, their starting pitchers, bullpens, benches, offenses and defenses. Oct. 8, 9

World Series Spectacular

Is it America's greatest sporting event? Here's an action-crammed look at the most dramatic moments from the past 76 years of World Series baseball. See for yourself if Babe Ruth really called his famous homer against Charlie Root of the Cubs. Watch Bob Gibson blaze his fastball. Relive Don Larsen's perfect game in 1956. Reggie Jackson's four straight home runs in 1977. Graig Nettles' dazzling plays at third base in 1978, memorable rallies, pinch hits and much more! Oct. 7, 8, 12

Jennifer

A bright but shy mountain girl summons "the vengeance of the viper" when students in a swank school torment her. Like Carrie, this chiller delves into the darker side of human nature. Brief nudity, adult language. (PG-130) Oct. 2, 6, 10, 19, 27

Dear Inspector

A fast-paced, refreshingly different mystery-comedy. Annie Girardot stars as the tough but soft inspector trying to rekindle an affair with an old college flame, Philippe Noiret. Brief nudity, adult language. (PG-145) Oct. 1, 5, 9, 17, 21

Midnight Express

A devastating, hard-hitting drama about an American student who lives a nightmare in a brutal Turkish prison. Nominated for six Oscars. Very strong physical violence, profanity, nudity. (R-201) Oct. 1, 3

The Singing Cowboys Ride Again

Remember how they rode, how they rescued runaways, how they survived Indian massacres—and then burst into song, serenading their sweethearts? See this delightful anthology of classic cowboy clips—including Gene Autry, Roy Rogers, Tex Ritter—and even John Wayne making his singing debut. Trigger and Champion also appear in this nostalgic recap of the best of the horse operas. Hosted by John Ritter, star of TV's Three's Company and son of cowboy star Tex Ritter. (0:51) Oct. 6, 10, 14, 18, 22, 26

Caravans

Anthony Quinn

Action, intrigue and romance on a grand scale as James Michener's best-selling novel becomes a colorful, exciting film adventure. Anthony Quinn stars as the lusty chieftain of a Central Asian tribe of nomads, and Jennifer O'Neill is the beautiful American runaway who joins him in the desert. Co-starring Michael Sarrazin. Mild profanity, some brutality. (PG-2:00) Oct. 5, 9, 13, 18, 22, 28

That Man in the White House: FDR

Robert Vaughn

In a sensitive, compelling and truly fascinating performance, Robert Vaughn is President Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Relive with him those monumental White House years—the New Deal, fireside chats, Pearl Harbor—in this rare tour de force portrait of the man and the politician—his humor, his triumphs and his personal tragedy. (1:44) Oct. 10, 14, 20, 23, 29

The Stranger and the Gunfighter

Wild six-gun shootouts plus kung fu as the fastest gun in the West joins the most brutal hands from the East. Lee Van Cleef teams with Lo Lieh, a jumper-kicker-karate chopper. Western-type violence. (PG-1:47) Oct. 1, 5, 7

Hardcore

George C. Scott

Strong, disturbing, very adult drama of a deeply religious businessman's search for his runaway teenage daughter through the sleazy jungle of pornographic films and prostitution. George C. Scott is brilliant as the righteous, tortured father. Peter Boyle co-stars as a private eye who specializes in locating missing teenagers. Written and directed by Paul Schrader. "Tough... hard-hitting" (Rex Reed) Much profanity, nudity, sexual references. (R-1:46) Oct. 12,16,20,25,29

Neil Simon's California Suite Alan Alda Jane Fonda

A perfect cast brings you some grand fun. Four stories, three Oscar nominations, eight stars: Alan Alda and Jane Fonda forced to a decision about an offspring. Bill Cosby and Richard Pryor, doctors on vacation. Maggie Smith and Michael Caine, an actress and her husband facing hard truths. Walter Matthau and Elaine May, supposedly faithfully married. Mildly racy situations and language. (PG-1:43) Oct. 14,18,22,26,30

White Lightning

Burt Reynolds

Booze-running, motor-gunning, law-breaking, fast and furious action. It's Burt Reynolds in a real knock-down, drag-out role. Burt's out to get a sheriff for the death of his brother. Jennifer Billingsley co-stars as a footloose camp follower. Ned Beatty, Oscar nominee for Network, is the sheriff. "A lot of Southern color and comfort" (N. Y. Post) Profanity, adult situations. (PG-1:41) Oct. 13,17,21

Harry & Tonto

Art Carney
Harry, a displaced New Yorker, embarks on a cross-country odyssey with his cat, Tonto, a far better companion than his frustrated sons and daughter. Art Carney is unforgettable in this Academy Award performance as the 72-year-old adventurer. Some profanity, adult relationships. (R-1:55) Oct. 15, 20, 24, 29

High Velocity

Ben Gazzara stars as "Bummer," a Vietnam vet, in this gripping tale of the kidnapping of an American corporation executive in a small, tropical nation. Guerilla warfare, murder plus a treacherous double cross add up to a fast-moving action adventure. Some profanity, physical violence. (PG-1:46) Oct. 17, 21, 27

Sparrow

Jerry Sparrow, mailroom clerk in a large detective agency, yearns for the life of a private eye. Bright, funny and a self-educated expert on crime—with absolutely no finesse—he sets out to track down the murderer of a well-known songwriter. Randy Herman and Lillian Gish co-star. Adult situations. (1:26) Oct. 16, 20, 24, 28

Inside the NFL

How did that receiver break into the open? What did that linebacker detect that enabled him to smear that runner? Get the answers from two former pro stars in our weekly NFL roundup. Quarterback Len Dawson excels at analyzing offenses and All-Pro Nick Buoniconti probes the defenses. Oct. 4, 5, 11, 12, 18, 19, 25, 26

The Fury

Kirk Douglas
Two teenagers with extraordinary telekinetic powers become prime targets for a shadowy organization looking for an ultimate weapon. Kirk Douglas is an ex-government agent trying to rescue his son from being exploited. Terror and suspense from the director of Carrie. "Crisp . . . very exciting" (Time) Profanity, strong violence. (R-1:58) Oct. 15, 19, 31

Richard Pryor in Concert

"Richard is 80% pure gold," a friend once said. "The other 20%? Well, look out!" You've seen the pure-gold side of Pryor in his movies. Now look out for the 20% in this rare solo performance. It's unbridled adult entertainment where Pryor's comic genius is unleashed—frank, fearless, flamboyant. Nothing's sacred—sexual habits, urban violence, drugs, kids. This one is strictly adults only. Profanity, vulgarity. October 19, 24, 28

Who'll Stop the Rain?

Nick Nolte

A mature thriller centering on the drug trade out of Vietnam, Nick Nolte (Rich Man, Poor Man) is impressive as the ex-Marine of strong will and stronger constitution at the heart of the action. Michael Moriarty, his war buddy, and Tuesday Weld, Moriarty's wife, are equally brilliant. A spectacular chase at the climax. "A knockout, destined to take its place among thought-provoking adventure classics" (Washington Post) Profanity, nudity, violence. (R-2:05) Oct. 21, 25, 27, 30

Matilda Elliott Gould

You'd better believe it! A male kangaroo named Matilda is the leading contender for the world heavyweight championship in this happy comedy for all the family. Elliott Gould is the manager and Robert Mitchum is the crusading sports editor who wants to use the 'roo to confound underworld influences in boxing. "Nice funny movie for everyone" (Houston Chronicle) (G-1:43) Oct. 20, 23, 28, 31

Tokyo Gymnastics

Part 1. With 32 of the world's finest performers taking part, this program offers the best preview yet for next year's Olympics. Men compete in pommel horse and rings; women in vaulting and uneven bars. Oct. 22, 24, 26

Part 2. Two classic confrontations: America's Rhonda Schwanndt tries to outduel two young Soviet girls on the balance beam. And the Soviet men strive to avenge their narrow 1976 Olympic loss to the Japanese. Oct. 29, 31

Legends: Joan Crawford

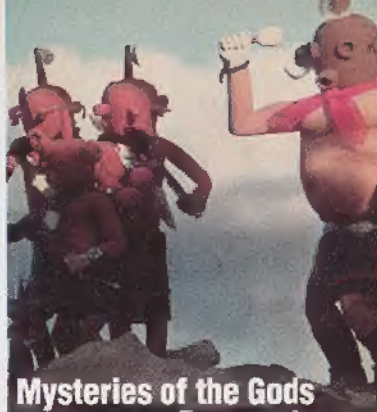

She was the Ultimate Star—a Hollywood great who was also one of filmdom's most controversial actresses. Her personal life was continually plagued by rumors. Film clips and stills show Joan Crawford's screen portrayals as a mirror of her off-screen life. Oct. 2, 7

Avalanche

Disaster strikes a Colorado ski lodge in this very different catastrophe film. Rock Hudson and Mia Farrow are caught up in the action as a mass of snow sweeps down on guests and athletes. An icy nightmare! Mild profanity, nudity. (PG-1:30) Oct. 3

Who went to Cher's lavish disco roller skating party? What happened when Steve Martin hosted a bash for the premiere of a movie's "coming attractions"? David Sheehan tours the screen world, on and off—including a comedy party at the Improvisation with guest alumni Robin Williams and Andy Kaufman. Oct. 24, 28

Mysteries of the Gods

A documentary film based on the best-seller Miracles of the Gods by Erich von Däniken who contends there were visitors from outer space in our past. NASA scientists and investigators discuss evidence of extra-terrestrial life. Jeane Dixon sums up matters at the end. Narrated by William Shatner. (G-1:32) Oct. 23, 27, 29

11:15 HARDCORE
Midwesterner searches for his missing daughter (R-1:46) p.10

Serpico Al Pacino

Explosive, true-life story of the New York City detective who fought bribery and corruption among his fellow lawmen. Superstar Pacino was nominated for an Oscar for his powerful portrayal of the undercover cop struggling with a moral dilemma. Filmed entirely on location in the Big Apple. Profanity, some violence. (R-2:10) Oct. 22, 26, 28

PHANTASM

The Morningside Mortuary is the chilling setting for terror in this highly original and innovative film that combines horror with science fiction. Death lurks in myriad fiendish forms, and the dearly departed become the liveliest corpses in town. A fresh-faced cast is caught up in the prevailing mood of mystery. Very original and very frightening! "A screamer... a thoroughly scary film" (L.A. Times) Nudity, profanity and graphic violence. (R-1:29) Oct. 26, 31

Who is Killing the Great Chefs of Europe?

George Segal Jacqueline Bisset Robert Morley

A tasty, well-spiced comedy-mystery full of fun, flavorful food, scenic European locales, murder, suspense and a delicious cast. Jacqueline Bisset is a top dessert chef; George Segal, her ex-husband with a fast food fortune; and Robert Morley, a gourmet whose appetite is exceeded only by his waistline. "A wonderfully frivolous concoction... not at all fattening" (Newsweek) Profanity, adult situations. (PG-1:52) Oct. 28

On Location: Billy Crystal

You're in for a free-flowing stream of sketches, improvisations and monologues from the star of Soap, now the fastest-rising young stand-up comic in the country. Just as HBO introduced you to Robin Williams, George Carlin and Steve Martin, we now bring you the inventive, upbeat, highly individual Billy Crystal and his wall-to-wall brand of humor. Another success story about to happen—on HBO. October 27, 30

Fedora

William Holden
Marthe Keller

Fedora! She was a Hollywood legend: the world worshipped her in her prime. Now a recluse, she turns down offers for a comeback, lives a strange life among strange people on the island of Corfu. Former lover William Holden tries to lure her out of retirement and to learn her secret. All-star cast includes Marthe Keller, Jose Ferrer, Michael York and Hildegard Knef. Brief nudity, some profanity. (PG-1:54) Oct. 30

Operation Thunderbolt

The Israeli rescue at Entebbe is an international thriller surpassing any fiction. Here is the Oscar-nominated, inside story of how the lightning raid was carried out. Physical violence. (PG-2:06) Oct. 6, 9, 14

Murder by Decree

Christopher Plummer is the great Sherlock Holmes and James Mason his steadfast friend, Dr. Watson, in this smashing thriller. On the trail of Jack the Ripper, the master detective lifts a veil of secrecy, terror and corruption at the very heart of the English throne. Some graphic violence (PG-2:03) Oct. 4, 8, 13, 16, 19, 24

The End Burt Reynolds

You'll die laughing as medically doomed Burt tries frantically to win sympathy from family and friends. Sally Field is his girl friend; Joanne Woodward, his ex-wife. Dom DeLuise, Carl Reiner, Norman Fell, Robby Benson, David Steinberg and Kristy McNichol add to the fun. Adult situations, profanity. (R-1:40) Oct. 14, 27
